

DEERFIELD

Dear Parents,

DECA is a highly successful professional national marketing and management student organization providing students with the unique opportunities to take skills and knowledge they learn in school and apply them in practical business simulations. Many of the activities are designed to help them reach their career and life's goals. Students in the organization achieve greater personal recognition and develop extensive leadership training through many fun and exciting activities that include local, state and national competitions where travel and scholarships are some of the awards.

The following outlines the dates and financial requirements that come along with DECA. These are to help you with planning. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact us.
